

What We Owe Our Enemy

- Who is our enemy?

Romans 12:18 (NKJV)

“If it is possible, as much as depends on you, live peaceably with all men.”

Matthew 10:36 (NKJV)

“and 'a man's enemies will be those of his own household.'”

What We Owe Our Enemy

A dramatic photograph of two hands reaching towards each other against a dark background. The hands are illuminated from the side, creating strong highlights and deep shadows. The hand on the left is slightly lower and more clenched, while the hand on the right is higher and more open, palm facing the other hand. The overall mood is one of tension, conflict, or a moment of reconciliation.

- Who is our enemy?
- What we owe our enemies:
- Love

Romans 5:6-8 (NKJV)

“For when we were still without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die; yet perhaps for a good man someone would even dare to die. But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.”

What We Owe Our Enemy

The background of the slide features two hands, one on the left and one on the right, reaching towards each other. The hands are illuminated from the side, creating strong highlights and deep shadows, set against a solid black background. The lighting emphasizes the texture of the skin and the veins on the palms.

- Who is our enemy?
- What we owe our enemies:
- Love
 - Do good

James 2:14-16 (NKJV)

“What does it profit, my brethren, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can faith save him? If a brother or sister is naked and destitute of daily food, and one of you says to them, "Depart in peace, be warmed and filled," but you do not give them the things which are needed for the body, what does it profit?”

I Corinthians 4:12 (NKJV)

“And we labor, working with our own hands. Being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we endure;”

Luke 23:33,34 (NKJV)

“And when they had come to the place called Calvary, there they crucified Him, and the criminals, one on the right hand and the other on the left. Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they do." And they divided His garments and cast lots.”

Matthew 5:44 (NKJV)

““But I say to you, love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who spitefully use you and persecute you,”

Acts 7:59,60 (NKJV)

“And they stoned Stephen as he was calling on God and saying, “Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.” Then he knelt down and cried out with a loud voice, “Lord, do not charge them with this sin.” And when he had said this, he fell asleep.”
