How to Put Your Light Under a Bushel

- Don't worry about your attitude toward your brethren

Philippians 2:14,15 (NKJV)

“Do all things without complaining and disputing, that you may become blameless and harmless, children of God without fault in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world,”

James 5:9 (NKJV)

“Do not grumble against one another, brethren, lest you be condemned. Behold, the Judge is standing at the door!”

Galatians 5:14,15 (NKJV)

“For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." But if you bite and devour one another, beware lest you be consumed by one another!”

Philippians 2:3-8 (NKJV)

“Let nothing be done through selfish ambition or conceit, but in lowliness of mind let each esteem others better than himself. Let each of you look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others. Let this mind be in you which was also in Christ Jesus, who, being in the form of God, did not consider it robbery to be equal with God, but made Himself of no reputation, taking the form of a bondservant, and coming in the likeness of men. And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross.”

John 13:35 (NKJV)

“By this all will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another.””
