THE HARVEST IS WHITE

- The fields are ready
- Avoid unfruitfulness
- All are involved
- Don't judge the soil
- The conversion rate doesn't matter
- The message will be strange to the world
- Be Bold

The background image is a painting depicting a Samaritan woman at a well. In the foreground, a stone well with a bucket hanging from a pulley is visible. The woman is standing behind the well, and a man is partially visible next to her. The background shows the interior of a church with a altar, a cross, and various religious paintings on the walls. The overall scene is set in a rustic, traditional environment.

Lessons from the Samaritan Woman

John 4:3-26

Lessons from the Samaritan Woman

John 4:3-4 “He left Judea and departed again to Galilee. 4 But He needed to go through Samaria.”

Lessons from the Samaritan Woman

John 4:5-6 “So He came to a city of Samaria which is called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. Now Jacob’s well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied from His journey, sat thus by the well. It was about the sixth hour.”

Lessons from the Samaritan Woman

John 4:7-9 “A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, “Give Me a drink.” 8 For His disciples had gone away into the city to buy food. 9 Then the woman of Samaria said to Him, “How is it that You, being a Jew, ask a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?” For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.”

Lessons from the Samaritan Woman

John 4:10-12 “Jesus answered and said to her, “If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, ‘Give Me a drink,’ you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water.” The woman said to Him, “Sir, You have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. Where then do You get that living water? 12 “Are You greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank from it himself, as well as his sons and his livestock?”

Lessons from the Samaritan Woman

John 4:13-14 “Jesus answered and said to her, “Whoever drinks of this water will thirst again, 14 “but whoever drinks of the water that I shall give him will never thirst. But the water that I shall give him will become in him a fountain of water springing up into everlasting life.””

Lessons from the Samaritan Woman

John 4:15 “The woman said to Him, “Sir, give me this water, that I may not thirst, nor come here to draw.”

Lessons from the Samaritan Woman

John 4:16-18 “Jesus said to her, “Go, call your husband, and come here.” 17 The woman answered and said, “I have no husband.” Jesus said to her, “You have well said, ‘I have no husband,’ 18 “for you have had five husbands, and the one whom you now have is not your husband; in that you spoke truly.”

Lessons from the Samaritan Woman

John 4:19 “The woman said to Him, “Sir, I perceive that You are a prophet”

Lessons from the Samaritan Woman

John 4:20-24 “Our fathers worshiped on this mountain, and you [Jews] say that in Jerusalem is the place where one ought to worship.”
21 Jesus said to her, “Woman, believe Me, the hour is coming when you will neither on this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, worship the Father. 22 “You worship what you do not know; we know what we worship, for salvation is of the Jews. 23 “But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for the Father is seeking such to worship Him. 24 “God [is] Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth.”

Lessons from the Samaritan Woman

John 4:25-26 “The woman said to Him, "I know that Messiah is coming" (who is called Christ). "When He comes, He will tell us all things." 26 Jesus said to her, "I who speak to you am [He].”
