

God's Law of Sowing and Reaping

A close-up photograph of a person's hand sowing seeds into dark, rich soil. The hand is positioned on the left side of the frame, with fingers carefully placing a small, light-colored seed into a shallow furrow. The soil is dark brown and appears moist. In the background, several small green seedlings are visible, growing from the soil. The lighting is warm and natural, suggesting an outdoor setting during the day.

- You reap what you sow

Genesis 1:10-12 (NKJV)

“And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good. And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so. And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good.”

Job 4:8 (NKJV)

“Even as I have seen, they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.”

Proverbs 22:8 (NKJV)

“He that soweth iniquity shall reap vanity: and the rod of his anger shall fail.”

Galatians 6:8 (NKJV)

“For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.”

- You reap what you sow
- You reap after you sow

Matthew 13:24-30 (NKJV)

“Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field: But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way. But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares? He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them. Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.”

Galatians 6:9 (NKJV)

“And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.”

- You reap what you sow
- You reap after you sow
- You reap more than you sow

Genesis 26:12 (NKJV)

“Then Isaac sowed in that land, and received in the same year an hundredfold: and the LORD blessed him.”

Hosea 8:7 (NKJV)

“For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk: the bud shall yield no meal: if so be it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up.”

Romans 8:18 (NKJV)

“For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.”

- You reap what you sow
- You reap after you sow
- You reap more than you sow
- Don't be deceived!

Galatians 6:7 (NKJV)

“Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.”

Romans 2:6-11 (NKJV)

“Who will render to every man according to his deeds: To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honour and immortality, eternal life: But unto them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath, Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile; But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile: For there is no respect of persons with God.”
